

AMBULANCERS SURE TO FIND JOBS HERE

Y. M. C. A. Sends Employment Delegates to Camp Pike to Determine Kind of Work Preferred.

TO PROVIDE FREE ROOMS

Those Without Homes in Tulsa Will Be Cared For—Will Arrive Next Week.

That a job may be provided for each of the 121 members of the Tulsa ambulance company who have no civilian home now is the view of Y. M. C. A. who sent one of their delegates, W. P. Clegg, to Camp Pike, Ark., to interview the men who have arrived at that campment and find just how many men have had good times avoiding these.

Some of the men have business interests; some have kept in touch with their former employers and others never a member of their old jobs past, but a few have no plans for the immediate future and it is to aid these that the commanding branch of the Y. M. C. A. has been organized. The purpose is to help the men ready for the soldier as soon as he gets into his fighting togs.

Secretary N. A. Thompson in charge of this work says that Captain K. C. has promised to take a number of the men and several other large firms have indicated that they would take any of the men after training course in the campment. The Y. M. C. A. department will be filled by appointment of the ambulance if the men prefer this class of work.

As soon as the company arrives at Camp Pike Secretary Clegg will interview each of the men and make up a list giving the age, experience and name of the member, where employed before entering service, whether he has a wife or a position in view, what kind of employment is desired, funds provided for and other information such as will aid the local office in satisfactorily placing him. This list will reach Secretary Thompson several days before the boys get home and by that time he expects to have seen the employer arrangements for those men that the men will have no time in getting settled in permanent occupations.

Among the ambulance men are several students from Kendall college. These men probably will want to resume their studies but the summer vacation is approaching and it is probable that they will want temporary positions for the summer. A special effort will be made to take care of these students.

"It is safe to say that we will have jobs for every Tulsa man of the company," said Secretary Thompson yesterday, "and we will take care of the boys from other towns who want to locate in Tulsa after their return from the war. If they wish to return to their former homes we will help them to get their men through our Y. M. C. A. organization."

The Y. M. C. A. is also looking to the comfort of the men. It will provide rooms for those who have not homes in Tulsa or friends to visit, and home-like meals will be furnished to them until they get located. One firm has offered to clean and repair a suit for each soldier and other courtesies of a like nature are being arranged.
